

THE AMERICAN BACCALAUREATE SCHOOL

Standardized Tests and University Tracking with Naviance

General Information

- Naviance is used for tracking students' SAT and TOEFL scores
- Also used to keep track of universities they have applied at and been accepted
- Naviance uses eDocs software that allows the school to send transcripts, letters of recommendations and other required application documents directly to Common Application universities via Naviance.

Student Requirements

- In order for students to have ANY official school documents sent to a university or scholarship program, their Naviance account MUST be fully up-to-date, including any SAT or TOEFL scores and the universities they are applying to as well as all milestones for their grade level completed.
- No official documents will be sent on behalf of a student until the Naviance requirements have been met.

Students must ensure they are registered with Naviance, have an updated account and are familiar with the site.
